207-c

POLICE CLAIMS SEMINAR

Sponsored by:
New York State Municipal Workers' Compensation Alliance

What is 207-c

Under General Municipal law, section 207-c extends extra benefits to police officers injured while engaged in the special work related to the criminal justice process.

Why you should attend

The most significant impact section 207-c has on employers, is the benefit entitlement of full salary payments until the disability arising from the injury ceases. This seminar will address the added challenges, procedures and responsibilities of employers arising from 207-c claims, to ensure you are in full compliance.

- Investigation of initial application
- Determining benefit levels for 207-c eligible claimants
- Removing claimants from 207-c status
- Disability retirement benefits in 207-c cases

Who should attend

Police Chiefs and their designees responsible for overseeing workers' compensation section 207-c claims, Town/Village Supervisors and Managers.
